Dear Clarence:

Many thanks for your note of 16 April, and the copy of "Freedom & Union". I have noted the reference to which you refer.

These days I am unusually occupied with a series of meetings, but I suggest you get in touch with the office about a week or ten days from now and possibly we can get together.

Sincerely,

Sincerely

Dear Allen:

You will find a reference to yourself and the C.I.A. on page 3-4 of our enclosed April issue which I trust you won't mind.

I also attach a copy of a letter I sent President Eisenhower yesterday with the enclosures, stressing why I believe the recession makes it urgent that the Atlantic Convention be called this year, and giving some evidence that our reasoned guesses in the past have proved better founded than those of the State Department.

Over-burdened though you are, I do believe that you will find this material worth your while, and that if you read it you will want to make sure it came - or will come - to the President's attention.

As I said when I saw you recently, I would like very much to discuss all this with you. You said this could be arranged and I hope your secretary will fix a date. My phone is ADams 4-3232. With best regards,

Sincerely,

Clarence
